Anti-Flag

Mobilize

N.B.C. (No Blood-Thirsty Coporations)

I herad a man on the radio saying, "we're facing an economic hell"

It creates a vision in my head of ten thousand kids sent off to kill

Theres always a voice that says, "you've got a choice"

But a choice between shit is still shit!!

CHORUS

Resistance, Resistance

I won't be used

By a fascist corporation, a rightwing politician,

I'm not a slave, not a tool, fuck you!

I've got an idea in my head and I know it is nothing new

But it seems to me a better plan than being used, and being screwed

Think your safe to spread your hate from behind your iron gate's

Your walls will never be strong enough to keep us down

(chorus)

BRIDGE

Sometimes there is not a choice, like when your backs against the wall

So it's better to make a move, before they've set you up to fall

SO YOU... so you better organize

SO YOU... so you better open eyes

SO YOU... so you better sound out loud the call

Before you find your back is up against the wall

THEIR fucking wall

(chorus)
