

Anti-Flag, Shadow Of The Dead

""(Verse 1)""

(Tonight, tonight, tonight) I'm gonna stay awake
Safe inside this Trojan horse until day breaks
(Open it up, tear it up, fuck it up)
In the streets runs a river red knee deep
Hidden in the blood of our own lies the alphabet of the free

""(Chorus x2)""

As I walk through the valley in the shadow of the dead
Will you remember them?

""(Verse 2)""

(Ce Soir, Ce Soir, Ce Soir) Je vais rester reve'ille'
There is no extinguishing the resistance you betray
(The Maquis, Zapatista, White Rose) Can we see the end of a battle unheard?
For every name in history there are one thousand more interred

""(Chorus x2)""

As I walk through the valley in the shadow of the dead
Will you remember them?

""(Breakdown)""

And I can't believe my own eyes
(I've seen this sight 1000 times)
Hey!

""(Bridge)""

We will be sovereign in the water, In the shadow of the dead
Still no one remembers them
We will be free in the cold of the shadow of the dead
Oh, you will remember then...

""(Chorus x2)""

As I walk through the valley in the shadow of the dead
Will you remember them?

As I walk through the valley in the shadow of the dead
Will you... remember...
