Anti-Nowhere League

Miscellaneous

Joseph Hendon

Hes a fucked up man with a fucked up life

Two dirty kids and an ugly wife

Standard clothes and a standard car acceptable ..thats what you are

The only times hes having fun, is when hes up hes neighbours bum

Kids himself thats hes a man

Hes never happy with the plan

Moans about hes got no class

Because his heads right up his arse

Well we dont like the things you do

And we will not remember you

He tells his kids not to be bad

And grow up like their normal dad

Then he sneaks off down the porny shop

To buy his books and rubber cock

He hides behind his mask of grins

And covers all his fucking sins

Well we dont like the things you do

And we will not remember. You

Your praying to your god above

To repay all you fucking love

But youre the meanest cunt in town

The road in you is fucking down

So dont expect respect from us

You fucked your life up, cant you suss

Well we dont like the things you do

And we will not remember you

Well we dont like the things you do

And we will not remember..you
