If my happiness is just a game to you
Then I'm gone away sooo gone
If I've become more of the same to you
Then I'm gone away sooo gone

And I'm feeling kind of like
I'm a child caught in the weather
And I'm feeling kind of tired
Wish I had strength enough to stop and let you go

If my happiness is just a game
Then I'm gone away sooo gone
If I've become more of the same to you
Then I'm gone away sooo gone

And I'm feeling kind of like
I'm a child caught in the weather
And I'm feeling kind of like
I might like a change coz I can't bear this mess
I'm feeling kind of tired
Wish I had strength enough to stop and let you go
Let you gooo

If my happiness is just a game to you
Then I'm gone...
Away sooo gone
