

Anything Box, Lady In Waiting

Anything Box
Peace
Lady In Waiting
(paul rijnders)

Hush hush, hurry into the dark room
And try to forget the words
They seep into your head.

The rules, are broken tonight
They can't haunt you anymore,
Tonight...

On a silver platter,
How hard i found the words
And still, i carry the hurt.

It was too hard to see,
And it drove inside of me.
I can't stand to bear the sores
I can't stand you anymore.

Since the night i left you,
Since the night i shared,
All of my emotions,
All the pain i felt,

Since the night i left you,
Since the night i shared,
All of my emotions,
My lady in waiting...

Since the night i left you,
Since the night i shared,
All of my emotions,
All the pain i felt,

Since the night i left you,
Since the night i shared,
All of my emotions,
My lady in waiting...

(repeat until end)
