Anything Box
Elektrodelica
Need
(claude s.)

All i need is under the spell of words,
Always there, trying to remind me of
What and who i am...

All i need is high on the sea of stars,
Shining down, trying to remind me of
What and who i am...

A tear to catch when it all comes crashing
Down, a loving face that tears away
The frown, somebody who needs to
Need, is all i needed...

All i need plays on my soft machines,
Like a child, trying to remind me of what
And who i am...

Even though i've seen the heavens fall
With the taint of every heart we tore,
In spite of the odds, my friend,
It was all i needed...

All i needed...all i needed...
