

Apartment 26, Void

If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give you
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd become void
If I let you know, I know that you'd forget
If I let you care, I'll have a fate of regret
What could I do to prepare for the backlash?
Crash, smash, how long will it last?
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give you
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd become void
When I come back, don't expect me to be here
Life is like a re-run; commercial free
Sponsored by the sacrifice of individuality
Easier to take away what was never missing
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give you
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd become void
Six double five three two one
You could never know just what it's become
Six double five three two one
You could never know what it's become
Six double five three two one
You could not know what it's become
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give you
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd become void
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give you
If I gave it all, I'd have nothing to give
If I gave it all, I'd become void
