

Aphasia, Clarity At Heights

So alone
I know you never wanted me
Cast the stone
Into my reality
And there's no way out of here
Set the tone
You always told me what to be
I will follow through
There's nothing left to lose

Face the light
It's time to draw the line
So don't let it slip away
And break the silence
Just let it die

Look around
Now I think I finally see
Have I found
A real opportunity
It's my way out of here
Safe and sound
Cause now your hold is weakening
I will follow through

Face the light
It's time to draw the line
So don't let it slip away
And break the silence
Just let it die

I mean it
I don't need this
I don't have to take it
I've done my time
I've had it
I don't have to take it

I will follow through

Face the light
It's time to draw the line
So don't let it slip away
And break the silence
Just let it die
