

Aphasia, Push for New

I can feel it rip through my skin
I flow freely in the wind
I cry, I try
with the bloodstain in my life
all we are is all we are
and who are you?
I should blame you for a love unfaithful
but I'll save this reaction
All we are is all we are
and who are you?
Today I tried to close this wound and I fear these thoughts won't disappear force fed lies am I blind
am I blind
All we are is all we are
and who are you?
I should blame you for a love unfaithful
but I'll save this reaction
All we are is all we are
and who are you?
who are you today?
I will push for new
I have eyes for you
Run, just run
I've been awake for hours now staring at the sun
And I know all you say and everything you do Its in these late hours that I find I'm through with you
