

ApologetiX, Revelation Man

There's a man who seems just like a savior
With everyone he meets he gains their favor
Oh, with every move he makes,
Another hand he shakes
Odds are he won't give you peace tomorrow

Revelation Man
Revelation Man
Hey, he's givin' you a number and takin' away your faith

It's there in Revelation that you find
A pretty beast who has an evil mind
He led the world astray;
They'll give their souls away
All that he will give is grief and sorrow

Revelation Man
Revelation Man
Hey, he's givin' you a number and takin' away your faith

Bringin' all the world together one day
Then saying that he's God Almighty next day
Oh, but you fell for all his tricks
By listenin' to 666
God's not who he is you'll see tomorrow
