

Apoptygma Berzerk, Black Pawn

So now you're back
You wanna fight again
No use to make a sigh
I already know your game
I know why you're here
You want to see me slain
Four a thousand years
it has been the same

For a second time
You're coming on again
Your faithful pawns working hard to drive me insane
Try to keep my head high in calms of rain
Grinding my teeth now
Trying to cover up the pain

Feeling tired, feeling numb
How could I have been so dumb
I let you in under my skin
To be ditched and left alone
I see fire in the sky
You turn me down, I wonder why
One day revenge will be all mine until then I'll walk alone
