

Apoptygma Berzerk, Electronic Warfare

Three lives to live
I'm trapped inside my zone
Firing shots, I became the target
I've lost my shields, she's bulletproof
Pressing buttons and shifting gear
You run away from what you fear
She shoots to kill
Electronic Warfare!

One life to go
You shoot before you aim
Reaching for a killer's heart
The only thing I claim
Time is running out
Suppose it's not a game
You reload your gun
Electronic Warfare!
