Apoptygma Berzerk, Electronic Warfare

Three lives to live I'm trapped inside my zone Firing shots, I became the target I've lost my shields, she's bulletproof Pressing buttons and shifting gear You run away from what you fear She shoots to kill Electronic Warfare!

One life to go
You shoot before you aim
Reaching for a killer's heart
The only thing I claim
Time is running out
Suppose it's not a game
You reload your gun
Electronic Warfare!
