Apoptygma Berzerk, Into The Unknown

We got lost inside a storm dazed and hurt we fought it through drawn to the light both detached heading into the unknown

Whenever you wanted me I was there for you and by a torch of faith I set myself on fire

How long must I wait for you? I just can't get you off my mind) How long must I wait for you? (being apart is wasting time) (X2)

There's a voice inside my head Telling me to go on alone That I'd stand a better chance To get through this on my own

Whenever you wanted me Well, I was there for you and by a torch of faith I set myself on fire

How long must I wait for you? (I just can't get you off my mind) How long must I wait for you? being apart is wasting time)
