

Appleseed Cast, Ice Heavy Branches

It's all in the air
it covers everything
now it's coming down
now it's on the brink
it turns the trees
to diamond things
but it weighs too much breaks everything
we could both be naked now and innocent
It breaks everything Everything breaks
under all it's weight
and it's covered us
We could strip it off
We could both be naked now and innocent.
It breaks everything
