

April March, While We're Young

Say it's time for love,
It's time for thrill,
And an adventure.

Say you'll drive me away,
Fast on the cliffs,
And we'll be in danger.

Tell me they'll be no fear
As we walk to the edge,
Stare at the void
While we're young

Drive me out to the bluff
Where only love's chosen go

Love's eternal roar is hiding... [undiscernible]

say its time for love
its time for thrill
and an adventure

say you'll drive me away
fast on the cliffs
and we'll be in danger

Tell me they'll be no pain
We'll never grow old
The sun will expire
In our embrace

Green and gold and life
Guide us on our speedy flight.
Beyond the wheels is black
So tell me we'll never turn back.

Say it's time for love,
It's time for thrill,
And an adventure

Say you'll drive me away
Fast on the cliffs
and we'll be in danger

Tell me they'll be no fear
As we walk to the edge
Stare at the void
While we're young
...while we're young...
□..while we're young...
