

April Sixth, In Memory

Mother says the rain is over now, and she's forgotten me
She said you better stop your crying now, cause it's plain to see that you've been crying, alone
And you've been dying, alone
So

Mother can you come and comfort me, cause I need your love
Help me figure out which one to be, like your son above
Cause I've been crying alone
And I've been dying alone
In memory, yeah
In my memory

Rest in your heart
Rest in your heart
Rest in your heart
Rest in your heart

Well, I know that, that you're out there, and you want to be with me.
Well, I'll tell you something, I totally feel your pain.
Have you been crying alone?
And have you been dying alone?

In memory, yeah.
In your memory.

Tear me off some, but don't look at me,
cause I know, that you know!

Tear me off some, but don't look at me,
cause I know, that you know!

Rest in your heart.
Rest in your heart.
Rest in your heart.
Rest in your heart.

In memor- in memory.
In memor- in my memory.
In memor- in your memory.
