

April Wine, Teenage Love

April Wine

Live At The El Mocambo

Teenage Love

(robert segarini)

Published by robertunes/slalom publishing co. - bmi

I don't want no older woman, who really doesn't dig my scene

And i don't want no spaced out groupie, who wants to be a gypsy queen

And i don't want no nasty lady, who doesn't dig rock 'n' roll

Cause i just want the dew eyed daughter of a father that lost control

Gimme some teenage love, ooh gimme some teenage love

Come on baby, you're drivin' me crazy, gimme some teenage love

I don't want no modern lover, who really doesn't dig my sound

And i don't want no boozed out floozy, who needs to lose a few more pounds

And i don't want no nasty lady, who doesn't dig rhythm and blues

Cause i just want the dew eyed daughter of a father that was born to lose

So gimme some teenage love, ooh gimme some teenage love

Come on baby, you're drivin' me crazy, gimme some teenage love

I don't want no sophisticated lady, who really doesn't dig my scene

And i don't want no funky chickie, who used to be a country queen

And i don't want no rich bitch sugar, who doesn't dig rhythm and blues

Cause i just want the dew eyed daughter of a father that was born to lose

So gimme some teenage love, ooh gimme some teenage love

So come on baby, you're drivin' me crazy, and gimme some teenage love

Gimme some teenage love, gimme some teenage love

Gimme some teenage love, gimme some teenage love

Come on baby, you're drivin' me crazy, gimme some teenage love

Come on baby, you're drivin' me crazy, gimme some teenage love