

Aqua Timez, ???

== English ==

Written on the sign that I found in the white, white forest was
"Live your life so that you have no regrets about tomorrow, and today"
I who woke from a dream chase after the meaning of those words
I leave the room thinking that this isn't a problem that will be answered if I think about it
The green of the tree-lined street, even though the sky is this blue
People are getting completely confused, not knowing what to do with kindness
Young people, who are hurt from touching one another
Have grown to stop believing in courage that is born from touching one another

You're not the only one who's all alone
I'm not the only one who's all alone

I blew my dreams into a balloon with all my might
That balloon that's always lighter than reality sank in the blue sky
If I could be a flower, the wind, a bird
I think that way because I'm human after all
We're searching for "someone" who isn't ourselves
We're trying to go home to "somewhere" that isn't here
Even if I bury 99 out of 100 of them with reason
The last piece is a shapeless piece called love

You're not the only one who wants to be loved
I'm not the only one who's freezing
You're not the only one who's all alone
I'm not the only one who's all alone

So hold up your hands, draw out your dreams; It's alright to be laughed at, shout out your love
With a loneliness that shakes with fragility and seems about to break
So hold up your hands, draw out your dreams; Being full of wounds, shout out your love
Even though you may want to cry, I hope that it resounds in the sky of someone who can't cry

No matter how many times I dream about walking around in a white, white forest
The letters on that sign continue to exist and quietly not say a thing
I'm a grown man who repeats his regrets
I know, I know; The hands on the clock won't turn back
I can hear someone's voice, like a faint SOS that I can't quite understand
It's getting erased by these noisy days

Is there anything that I can do?
If there is, then I can sing with you, if that's alright

You're not the only one who wants to be loved
I'm not the only one who's freezing
You're not the only one who's all alone
I'm not the only one who's all alone

So hold up your hands, draw out your dreams; It's alright to be laughed at, shout out your love
In order to lift up the sound of the light that has sunken down to the silent bottom
So hold up your hands, draw out your dreams; Being full of wounds, shout out your love
In order for our skies to become one, if only for a second
