

Aqualung, Easier To Lie

To bear the weight
and push into the sky
it's easier to lie
it's easier to lie

And honestly
to look you in the eye
it's easier to lie
it's easier to lie

To be the one to be the only one something has to give a lot
something has to give a lot

And who am I
to give you what you need when I'm learning
just learning Learning how to live and

to bear the weight...
it's easier to lie
it's easier to lie

And honestly
to look you in the eye
it's easier to lie
it's easier to lie

To fill the space
the space you made for me try to be the one you want

And maybe I could be the one you need if you'd only
show me Show me how to live and how to bear the weight

And push into the sky
it's easier to lie
easier to lie

And do what's right
when everything is wrong
it's easier to run
it's easier to

Never have
it's easier to lie
it's easier to lie

To bear the weight
