

Aqualung, Halfway To The Bottom

You're either dipping your toe
or you're drowning
or you're drowning
Is it better never to start
Than to bear the pain
Of having to stop
Of having to stop
Halfway to the bottom
Instantly forgotten
I never thought it would come so easy
I never thought it would go
So quickly
Is it safer never to love
Than to risk your heart
Having to lose
Having to lose
Halfway to the bottom
Instantly forgotten
I don't know
Which way to go
Is it wiser never to speak
Than to raise your voice
And never be heard
never be heard
never be heard
