

Arapaho, Eden

Arapaho
1, 2 Mile From Eden
Eden

You stood all wrapped up in the corner
False smile you looked me in the eye
You feel you're half a mile from eden
Inside you're spinning around

You dream of deep blue seas and thunder
One tear the shadows hide your fear
You feel you're half a mile from heaven
Inside you're spinning around

You had the life, you had the feel
You had the laugh, you had the thrill
You had the chance, his turn to deal
Now you know how it feels

Time crawls for him to disappear
You pray you like to feel alive
I know you're half a mile from nowhere
Inside you're spinning around=20

You had the life, you had the feel
You had the laugh, you had the thrill
You had the chance, his turn to deal
Now you know how it feels
