

Arch Enemy, Cult of Chaos

Chaos is creation
A swirling mass of atoms and ideas
Natural selection, the sculptor of all life
Survival of the fittest, all your tall tales are dead
We are legion, one will and one heartbeat
This is anarchy
We are a godless entity
There are many ways to die
But only one way to live
Let the cult of chaos reign
Be as free as you can be
Confusion, diffusion, your system in turmoil
Disillusion, revolution, the storm to cleanse this world
False prophets, propaganda
Speak in tongues and dead words
Till the fangs of reality
Will sink into their throats
This is anarchy
We are a godless entity
There are many ways to die
But only one way to live
Let the cult of chaos reign
Be as free as you can be
There will be dead silence and then a new beginning
Let the cult of chaos reign
There are many ways to die
But only one way to live
Let the cult of chaos reign
Be as free as you can be
There are many ways to die
But only one way to live
Let the cult of chaos reign
Be as free as you can be
