Archer Tasmin
Great Expectations

Arienne

arienne

i realise something's not in your favour

arienne

i'll catch you when you fall

you turn to the world

the world turns grey

all alone

on your own

you're set in your ways

you breathe in a smile

then wipe it away

broken heart

torn apart

and let down again

the view from the hill

is not what it seems

from below

don't you know

it's all in your dreams

oh it's true

arienne

arienne

arienne

arienne

you fall...
