

Archers Of Loaf, What Did You Expect?

Unwanted space
Put it back together
Put it in your face
Scatter your salt
Get your own solution
Don't blame me for all of your confusion

Cause your word is shot
Your speech is shut
Don't dig my throat
It's a running sore

Don't set me back
Shave my brain
Your steps too short
Plain and insignificant

It's a running sore
It's the rope
It's the rubbing
Can't do nothing cause I'm all tied up

Drown that face
Look at that slobber
Looks like goiter
and I'm all tied up

(repeat last two)

Spread out flat
What did you expect?
Why's the man always trying to keep me down?
Hated at home,
What did you expect?
Why's the man always trying to keep me down?

Cause your word is shot,
Your speech is shut,
Don't dig my throat,
It's a running sore.

Don't set me back,
Shave my brain,
Your steps too short,
Plain and insignificant.

It's a running sore,
It's the rope ,
It's the rubbing,
Can't do nothing cause I'm all tied up.

Drown that face
Look at that slobber
Looks like goiter
and I'm all tied up

It's a running sore,
It's the rope ,
It's the rubbing,
Can't do nothing cause I'm all tied up.

Drown that face
Look at that slobber
Looks like goiter

and I'm all tied up

(repeat last two in the background)

You aren't listening
To what you're saying
When you say the things you're saying.

When you walk
The way you talk
