

Aretha Franklin, Ever Changing Times

It's an ever changing time
I see, that clock upon the wall
Well it don't bother me at all
It's an ever changing time

And me, ever changing time
Everything is going so much faster
It seems like I'm
Watching my life, and everything I do
Wonder if the dreams that I believed in Still come true

Caught in between, it comes back to
You and me running out of time, I gotta find me a better understanding
Everything keeps forgetting what's mine, I gotta find me a way, less-demanding
And we're holding on so tight, together, all of our lives

And I, I had some big idea
So much of my life, still not completed
Hopes and Fears
Watching it change, into something new
Wondering if I'm gonna find the answer, loving you

All of my life, it comes back to
You and me running out of time, I gotta find me a better understanding
Everything keeps forgetting what's mine, I gotta find me a way, less-demanding
And we're holding on so tight, together, all of our lives

I see, that clock upon the wall, well it don't bother me at all
It's an ever changing time
[2x]

All of my life, it comes back to
You and me running out of time, I gotta find me a better understanding
Everything keeps forgetting what's mine, I gotta find me a way, less-demanding
And we're holding on so tight, together
[i]And we're gonna be alright[i], together, all of our lives

I see, that clock upon the wall, well it don't bother me at all
It's an ever changing time
