

Aretha Franklin Feat. Mary J, Don't Waste Your T

Lately I've got this funny feeling
Something don't feel the same
But he's telling me I'm the one to blame
Yes, I know that he still gives me good loving
But when he's deep inside
There's somebody else on his mind
Don't waste your time
But it gets so hard to know
Just walk away
You say that I gotta let go
Seen it a million times before
You shouldn't take his stuff no more
Can't waste my time
Girl, it's not hard to know
Should walk away
Yeah, you've gotta let it go
Seen it a million times before
Shouldn't take his shh no more
Sister girl, sister girl
It's much deeper than what you're thinking, ooh
When something don't feel the same
Hey, you better believe his love has change
And I have been telling you, telling you
And what you're telling me
