

Ari Koivunen, God Of War

Soaring from the skies
Bringing down the light
The one who travels thorough time
Making us believe
He knows what's best for us.

Neverending seer
Leading us to steer
Our ships to new horizons
All he ever takes
Is our innocence.

Bleed for him we cry
But no one answers
Are we blind to see the truth?

God of war looking down at us
God of war he's the one we trust
If to fight is our destiny
Grant us victory.

Burned down paradise
Is it our prize
That's left to all good children
Can they sleep at night
Because of our sacrifice?

Rolling down the dice
Dividing men and mice
Only the best can make it alive
Laughter from above
We please him more and more.

Bleed for him we cry
But no one answers
Are we blind to see the truth?

God of war looking down at us
God of war he's the one we trust
If to fight is our destiny
Grant us victory.
