

Ari Koivunen, Tears keep falling

Walking in the shadows of the echoes of goodbye
Closing the gates inside my mind
Each man kills the things he loves, yet each man does not die
The feeling is keeping me alive
I heard you call
I watched you fall from grace
Tears keep falling forever more
Feel the rain
Feed the pain
tears are drowning me
Searing, healing me
Healing me
Feel the rain
Feed my pain
A tale of beauty torn asunder and apart
The embers are dying on the floor
The years, the tears, the fears
The silent, violent solitary heart
Longing to live this all once more
I heard you call
I watched you fall
Tears keep falling forever more
Feel the rain
Feed the pain
tears are drowning me
Searing, healing me
Healing me
You never knew me
Can't you never leave me be?
I heard you call
I watched you fall from grace
Tears keep falling forever more
Feel the rain
Feed the pain
tears are drowning me
Searing, healing me
Healing me
Feel the pouring rain
Feed my pain
You never knew me (3x)
