

Arkells, I'm Not the Sun

Slipped through the front door
Without a key
Its always unlocked
When youre waiting for me
And I have to wait till your roommates were sleeping
They give you a hard time that I was over

Yours eyes light up always the same
Just like I was taking you on a first date
If you have no reason for feeling this way
So dont let me be your guiding light
Cuz that was never my power
Im not the sun
Theres no guarantee
I burn out hard like a spark

So dont let me be your guiding light
Cuz Ill keep you lost in the dark
Cuz Im not the sun
Theres no guarantee
Cuz I burn out hard like a spark
Yeah, I burn out hard like a spark
