

Armageddon, Asteroid Dominion

We are all in
A state of mourning
Grieving the ones
Who did not survive
We perform a
Ceremony for dead
As their caskets float
Away into space
But we know we've Got to keep going
Pushing forward
Into dark universe
On a mission
To rescue our race
Secure the future
Of our kind

Asteroid dominion
The star or our
Fantasies and dreams
Asteroid dominion
Shining so bright
Asteroid dominion

Everything is a circle
Constantly moving ahead
Somewhere out there we
Will find our own utopia
A new for future generations
Legends in our own lifetime
A fresh start
Without degeneration
A brave new world

Asteroid dominion
The star or our
Fantasies and dreams
Asteroid dominion
Shining so bright
Asteroid dominion

-Solos-

Unto a land flowing
With milk and honey
Beyond the known universe
In a hidden galaxy
A sacred sanctum
For you and me
I'm praying for a
Peaceful existence
As unlikely as that may seem
Tell me what good is man
Without his dreams?
