

Armin Van Buuren, Beautiful Life (feat. Cindy Alma)

Some people keep wondering,
Some people long without knowing,
Some people never found the answer,
The answer?
Come and step into the light,
Let the beatings in your heart out?
We finally know how to be free,
Let the music, you're with me,
It's how I feel everything for the first time?
It's such a beautiful, beautiful life,
When every day is made of you and I,
Oh oh,
Just close your eyes,
And we could dance tonight forever?
