Armin Van Buuren, Strong Ones (ft. Cimo Fränke

I've been calling I've got endless reasons Wait now Hold on Do you still believe we run straight through fire But we can do better We can do better Say for last time We can do better Cause we can do better We can do better Cause all that we need Is a second to hold on Cause we are the strong ones All that we need Is a reason to fight on Cause we are the strong ones Yeah we are the strong ones We are the strong ones /4xDon't think Dont speak

Let's just sit in silence Every heart beat Makes it feel just like we Run straight through fire But we can do better We can do better Say for last time We can do better Cause we can do better Cause all that we need Is a second to hold on Cause we are the strong ones All that we need Is a reason to fight on Cause we are the strong ones We are the strong ones We are the strong ones Is a reason to fight on Cause we are the strong ones We are the strong ones We are the strong ones
