

Armin Van Buuren, Unforgiveable

You use to light up the dark
With your unrelenting spark
It always put a fire in me
You use to say I'm the one
The only ray of sun you could touch without the fear of burning
Well you use to try to please me
Yeah you use to try to please me
Never said this would be easy
Never said this would be easy
Well now, you tell her now
While you hold her in your arms
Are you pretending shes me?
Just alone I go
Before you realize shes the one that you're going to lose anyway
You just got there now you're leaving
You just got there now you're leaving
Your sweet notes are deceiving
Your sweet notes are deceiving
Well it ain't over till its over and my world shuts down
But this comes close I'll have you know
Its just a matter of time
But it ain't over till its over but I won't be made a fool
'Cause leaving me the way you did was just so
Unforgivable [x6]
