

Armin Van Buuren, Wall Of Sound (Airbase Presents)

He Said
I am the worldly wise
Just look into my eyes
And wish for anything

And so she held his gaze
And fell into his maze
And saw that all around
Was just a wall of sound

Out there, it's all around
See it through his eyes
I can touch the wall of sound,
And feel

Out there, it's all around
See it through his eyes
I can touch the wall of sound
And feel, alive

She felt a warmth descend
Her life from start to end
A Magic energy

No longer half a life
Immersed and mesmerised
A perfect vision found
Inside the wall of sound

Out there, it's all around
See it through his eyes
I can touch the wall of sound,
And feel

Out there, it's all around
See it through his eyes
I can touch the wall of sound
And feel alive
