

Armor For Sleep, Phantoms Now

Tonight, at twelve, we change, ourselves forget, this world, we know transparent we'll be invisible so they won't see our hearts beat we won't hurt a thing we just want to haunt this house at least for now

Watch us change
kill the light Phantoms now
dead tonight

You'll be a ghost
I'll be your dream
you'll float through me
I'll disappear
You'll be a ghost
I'll be your dream
you'll float through me
I'll disappear

We'll stay in this room sit still and enjoy the calm, we become we'll fall down the stairs nothing can support us now
we're not here

Watch us change
kill the light Phantoms now
dead tonight

You'll be a ghost
I'll be your dream
you'll float through me
I'll disappear
You'll be a ghost
I'll be your dream
you'll float through me
I'll disappear

I'll disappear
We're not here
I'll disappear
You'll be a ghost
I'll be your dream
you'll float through me
I'll disappear
You'll be a ghost
I'll be your dream
I'll understand
