

Armor For The Broken, Bedroom

Let's take this up a notch real-life miracles
i know it's not the worst day of our lives am I charming I really need to know a gentleman always show up a little late is this worth it my conscious is screaming no it's my choice to decide I just hope its the right one your subtle story ends with a dagger in my heart your pinned up smile never fooled me from the start
