Armored Saint, Seducer

Ooh no way. How does it feel
To been bit by the snake, left without a meal
You know the stakes are high
When you hear her cry
She'll keep pushin' and pushin' til she makes her mark

Here's what they said, lookout Seducer, Seducer

I tried to hit on the beat I got mesmerized babe, I fell to her feet She can steal your soul, with her mind control Fighting for air Was all worthless despair

Just as they said, lookout Seducer, Seducer Seduce me, seduce me, seduce me Hold tight, knocked to the floor I give all I got, but she still wants more It's a human trap, just a dead bum rap Hear my words, get on your feet and run

Just as they said, just as they said, lookout She's a seducer, seducer Seducer, seducer me, seducer
