

Arthur Alexander, Go Home Girl

Well now, me and Frank, we're the best of friends
And our friendship will never end
But it would hurt him so for him to know
That I love his girlfriend
Now, the love of a girl and the love of a friend
Are two things you can't compare
So, my heart will ache but I will let it break
'Cause I know it just ain't fair
Go on home, girl, let's call it a night
Go on home, girl, this just ain't right
But before you go I want you to know
That I love you, yes I do
Well, my heart will ache but I will let it break
'Cause I know Frank loves you too
Well, you say that we can make him see
We have a love that's really real
But I think that he is just like me
And I don't know just how he'd feel
But darling, I do know it would hurt him so
If you told him that it must end
And I could never hold a love I stole
From a man I call my best friend
So, go on home, girl, let's call it a night
Go on home, girl, this just ain't right
Go on home, go on home
You know I love you but he does too
And you belong to him, yes you do
Go on home, go on home
Go on home, baby, please
You better go right now, honey please
