

Artist Vs Poet, Damn Rough Night

It's gonna be a damn rough night
For the designated driver
'Cause it's me and whoever
And you know we won't remember
Sorry for what i'm 'bout to do
Turning 21 is a bitch to go through
While we take a drink let's toast
To the "never have I ever"s
'Cause tonight is the night
That we'll talk about forever
So take my keys and hide my cellphone
If I turn into trouble, at least i warned you
Let's recap, let's get caught up
No one said enough's enough
I let go of the better part of me
I guess I had a damn rough night
I'm still piecing it together
There's a girl in my bed
And I haven't even met her
I had a damn rough night
And I can't even remember
Throw my clothes in the fire
And I turn into a streaker
Sorry for what I'm 'bout to do
Turning 21 is a bitch to go through
All these crazy things we do
Turning 21 is a bitch to go through
I heard I was a big chaotic mess at the occasion
Was a total disaster and now I'm fading faster
I'll keep the score never realized
Now I pass the time until i feel alive
And I am not like this (???)

Let's recap, let's get caught up
No one said enough's enough
I let go of the better part of me
I guess I had a damn rough night
I'm still piecing it together
There's a girl in my bed
And I haven't even met her
I had a damn rough night
And I can't even remember
Throw my clothes in the fire
And I turn into a streaker
Sorry for what i'm 'bout to do
Turning 21 is a bitch to go through
All these crazy things we do
Turning 21 is a bitch to go through
And if I had the chance to know, I'd do it all again
And if I had the chance to know, I'd do it all again
I guess i had a damn rough night
I'm still piecing it together
There's a girl in my bed
And I haven't even met her
I had a damn rough night
And I can't even remember
Throw my clothes in the fire
And I turn into a streaker
Sorry for what I'm 'bout to do
Turning 21 is a bitch to go through
All these crazy things we do
Turning 21 is a bitch to go through
Is a bitch to go through
