

Artist Vs Poet, To Hell With The Letdown

I've been dying for this moment
And now i'm trying hard to make it last
My head is spinning
Can't believe it's going by so fast
And these days are slipping away
But the memories won't fade
Don't wait for tomorrow
'Cause our time is right now
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown
All the lights are burning out
But we are just getting ready to begin
No reason to call it quits
We'll take this feeling with us 'till the end
And these days are slipping away
But the memories won't fade
Don't wait for tomorrow
'Cause our time is right now
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown
We're not gonna waste it
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the let down
It won't last forever,
We can't (????)
This life is all we have
It's not gonna live itself
Don't wait for tomorrow
'Cause our time is right now
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown
We're not gonna waste it
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the let down
To hell with the let down
'Cause our time is right now
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the let down
