

As Tall As Lions, If I'm Not Out Burning

I'm lighting matches off of you
I'm burning bridges, all for you

Their fires made a perfect view
Of what seemed to be your mouth
I'm letting loose just one regret
The two of us, the two of us
Never looked so bad
We never looked so bad

"Let's go!"

I've watched the changes
I've watched the changes
Through your eyes
Like a movie of my life

I've watched the changes
I've watched the changes
You don't know
The half of it

And God this makes me sick
To let loose one last regret
The two of us, the two of us
Never felt so right
Never felt so right
