

As Tall As Lions, Silhouettes / Silhouetting

Don't think you can get out this easy I feel it too, but I'll never move It's what you didn't do that's making you look so guilty of hiding the truth the you really feel

I'll remember your smile coming out as I cling on with eyes cursed all the sky you were on some things are better off left unsettled go close your eyes to try to forget its so you to walk all the world's laid footsteps hoping that you did nothing at all

I'll remember your smile
coming out as I clinged on with eyes curse this star we're on
