

Summer,
It's been three years since I last saw
That lonely smile
Bound to be a thousand more
'Til I can find
A face I loved as much as yours
Mi hermosa

Never
Would have thought you'd catch my eye
Across the room
Broken English, a goodbye
That came too soon
Who needs words when you reply
Con su cuerpo?

I've been stuck
On your foreign eyes & & & & & & & &
They have struck for better boy & & & & & & &

Ooh, ooh

Haven't found all that I'm looking for
Lost your ghost somewhere in Samana
Try and try there's no use to pretend,
All I want is to see you again
