

As Tall As Lions, Where Do I Stand?

Written by: Brandon Syms

Dear I fear that we've gone wrong,
You've always hung me from the galows,
But I don't feel I'll be forgiven,
Yeah I don't feel like being forgiven,

If you don't see it, you could never walk away,
If you don't feel it, it's gonna get harder every day,
But you don't want love, keepin' you awake at night,
'Til you can't sleep

Dear I fear that you've settled,
You've always pushed me in the shadows,
But I don't feel you'll be forgiven,
No I don't feel you'll be forgiven,

If you don't see it, you could never walk away,
If you don't feel it, it's gonna get harder every day,
But you don't want love, keepin' you awake at night,
'Til you can't sleep

When you wake up alone, wake up alone, to that mistake,
When you wake up alone, wake up alone, you question the choice you made,
When you wake up alone, wake up alone, to that mistake,
Or do you wake up at all? wake up at all?

If you don't see it, you could never walk away,
If you don't feel it, it's gonna get harder every day,
But you don't want love, keepin' you awake at night,
'Til you can't sleep
