

Asaf Avidan, Over My Head

I'm in over my head
Dragged back from the dead
How was I to know?
Just a seedling in the snow
Now I am trying
To get you on the line
'Cause baby I'm coming back home

And it's hard to believe, but there's nobody leaving
Please don't lock the door
'Cause baby I'm yours

A shattered broken pile
That could not reconcile
Darkness stared at me
A love spilled carelessly
Then you turned on the light
Like a moth in the night
Baby I'm coming home

And it's hard to believe, but there's nobody leaving
Please don't lock the door
'Cause baby I'm yours
