

Aselin Debison, Miss You

It's Friday afternoon
The rain is pouring down
I walk through the puddles
Each one a different sound
I pass your house
The feeling comes over me
It's just an emotion only the heart can say
Cause I miss you
Cause I miss you

I won't make a big scene I'll just walk on by
I can't help it all I can do is cry
I hang up my coat and I shut my door and sigh
It's just an emotion only my heart knows why
I miss you
Said I miss you

Said that I miss you
Said that I miss you
