

Ash, Ritual

she walking out on you again fighting with demons that i can't contain walking on
but i want to turn and run through the empty streets that through the mist and your new dawn light feel so lost can't take back all the pain and the damage i've caused i'm not talking
i bury it within
until it turns into a hell in my head hell in my head
in a solid panic i suppress vulnerable
emotions that i can't express so open up
why do i feel so insecure irrational
of the only thing i'm sure of so i know
trying to fit in this place but i just don't fit, no i'm not talking
a hell in my head
i'm not talking
i'm not talking
i'm not breathing
i got to hold it in until i breathe to leave this hell in my head this hell in my head so take these (?)
and stay in my place
take these (?)
and in its place
forget my past
forget your doubts
take these words
and let them out
