

Ashanti, Carry On

[Verse: 1]

There was something in your eyes that I saw tonight
I never thought that I would see it
Now theres holes in my walls and theres glass on the floor
And you said you didnt mean it
You went from zero to none in these past three months on your level of affection
I dont wanna be that girl that cries herself to sleep putting up with your rejection cause

[Chorus:]

I cant carry on living life like this, living life like this
This cant be what it is; I dont wanna live my life like this.
I cant carry on living life like this, living life like this
This cant be what it is; I dont wanna live my life like this.

[Verse: 2]

When I try to make sense out of what we have I also fall into depression
Because I know in my heart that we both grown apart aint no use in us pretending
We never talk on the phone and youre never at home
And if you are theres always tension
I aint gonna be that girl that ends up staying sitting around just regretting cause

[Chorus:]

I cant carry on living life like this, living life like this
This cant be what it is; I dont wanna live my life like this.
I cant carry on living life like this, living life like this
This cant be what it is; I dont wanna live my life like this.

[Verse: 3]

Im tired of fighting, Im tired of spiting
My life is a storm full of raining and lightening
My insides are pleading of the screaming
And sometimes I just feel like Im no longer breathing
I look in your eyes all I see is a demon
Im tired of wearing my heart on my sleeve and I just dont know why I stay
Cause day after day continue to say

[Chorus:]

I cant carry on living life like this, living life like this
This cant be what it is; I dont wanna live my life like this.
I cant carry on living life like this, living life like this
This cant be what it is; I dont wanna live my life like this.

[Repeat to fade]
