

Ashbury Heights, Scars Of A Lighthouse

You...
You celebrate me
You separate me from the crowd
You liberate me
You always calm me when I`m loud
Youre a lighthouse shining in the dark, go girl
When Im lost you always guide me home
Im a whitehouse, cant trust anyone in this world
If wasnt for you I would be alone
If you part, I fall apart
If you part, I fall apart
On stormy waters
I drink the rain and curse the skies
And when Im sober
Youre standing were the sun would lie
Youre a lighthouse shining in the dark, go girl
When Im lost you always guide me home
Im a whitehouse, cant trust anyone in this world
If wasnt for you I would be alone
If you part, I fall apart
If you part, I fall apart
Youre a lighthouse shining in the dark, go girl
When Im lost you always guide me home
Im a whitehouse, cant trust anyone in this world
If wasnt for you I would be alone
If you part, I fall apart
If you part, I fall apart
Youre a lighthouse(alone, alone , alone)
Youre a lighthouse (alone, alone , alone)
Youre a lighthouse (alone, alone , alone)
If you part, I fall apart
If you part, I fall apart
If you part, I fall apart
If you part, I fall apart
